INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON HAPPINESS: SCIENCE AND PRACTICE

Indian Institute of Management, Ranchi

In collaboration with Rekhi Foundation, USA

About The Happiness Center, IIM Ranchi

The Rekhi Centre of Excellence for the Science of Happiness at IM Ranchi was established in 2017 with the support of the Rekhi Foundation. It is dedicated to studying and promoting happiness and well-being. The centre conducts research, offers courses, and hosts events, including the International Conference on Happiness and Happiness meet, among others. The primary goal of the centre is to enhance individual and societal happiness by fostering an understanding and application of happiness science, thereby making a positive impact on the IM Ranchi community as well as the society.

Introduction to The Conference

The "International conference on Happiness: Science & Practice (ICHSP)" aims to investigate the multidimensional aspects of happiness from both scientific and practical vantage points. The purpose of the conference is to bring together researchers, practitioners, policymakers, and individuals from throughout the world interested in the field of happiness to share knowledge, discuss the latest findings in happiness research, and exchange insights.

The overarching objective is to promote a deeper comprehension of happiness and well-being and to investigate ways to apply this knowledge to improve individual and societal happiness. Click here to know more about Rekhi Centre of Excellence for the Science of Happiness, IIM Ranchi.

Call For Papers

We extend a warm invitation to academicians, research scholars, students, practitioners, and experts from diverse disciplines to explore and discuss the most recent advancements and applications aimed at promoting happiness. The overarching goal of the conference is to foster a deeper understanding of happiness and well-being.

In this context, we encourage the submission of conceptual, empirical studies, and practices that are directly relevant to the field of happiness. Accepted abstracts will have the opportunity for presentation in the form of full papers or posters.
